

1. Instruction of Poster Session (for presenters, presiders, and audience)

1.1. Poster session overview

- The poster session will consist of two parts: the first half (Tu-A) where short presentations will be held, and the second half (Tu-E) where poster exhibitions and discussions will be held in breakout rooms.
- In the first half (Tu-A), presenters, presiders and audience will participate in the short presentation in real time.
- The short presentation will be recorded by the secretariat and delivered on demand in ISOM web site only on the day of the poster session.
- In the second half, individual discussion for each presentation will be held using breakout room. During this second half of the session, the presenter will be in the breakout room, and the audience should visit the breakout room of interest and discuss with the presenter.

Poster Session

Session No. Tu-A	Oct. 5, Tue. 9:00-10:20	short presentations will be held
Session No. Tu-E	Oct. 5, Tue. 15:50-17:50	individual discussion for each presentation will be held using Zoom Breakout Room

1.2. First half of poster session

1.2.1. Joining Zoom Meetings

- Click the Meeting Registration URL in the email sent by ISOM to join Zoom Meetings. For more information, please see Instructions for audience, Instructions for presiders or Instructions for presenters.

1.2.2. short presentations

- The presentation time is 2 minutes and setting time for the next presentation is one minute.
- The time schedule of the presentation can be found in Tu-A of the advanced program. Each presenter should wait for their start time with a margin of ± 5 minutes.

- Since the presentation time is short, the presenters are requested to prepare sufficiently with reference to Instructions for presenters.
- Please notice that there is no Q & A time in session Tu-A. It is up to the presenter to use A0 poster and/or other materials for the short presentation.

1.3. Second half of poster session

1.3.1. Video delivery

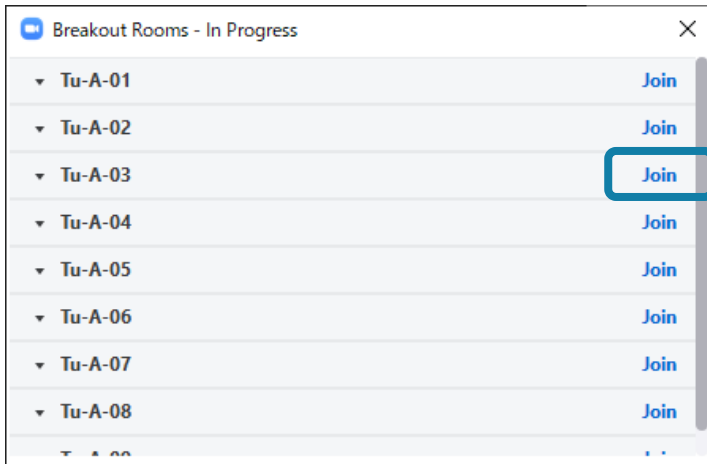

- The short presentations in the first half will be recorded by the secretariat and will be available on demand only on the day of the poster session.
- The video is available on the ISOM website ISOM'21_Online Technical Digest. An ID and password distributed to ISOM participants are required for video viewing.

1.3.2. Discussion in breakout room

- There are breakout rooms for each presentation.
- Audience will enter the breakout room interested in and discuss with the presenter.
- Presenters should wait in their breakout room during the second half. When the audience visits the breakout room, please use posters, presentation materials, submitted papers, etc. to discuss with the audience.
- Presenters should display a poster of A0 size in their breakout room during the second half.

1.3.3. Discussion in breakout room

- At the start of the second half, click the link in the email sent by ISOM to join Zoom Meetings from the Meeting Registration screen.
- Click the Breakout Room button in the menu bar at the bottom of the Zoom Meetings screen to see a list of breakout rooms. The lecture number is the room name, so click "Join" in the room you want to enter to enter.

•To exit the breakout room, click "Leave Room" in the menu bar and then press "Leave Breakout Room".
